

Vello prototype — screenshots

Source: Vello-Prototype.html (downloadable from <https://vello-product.vercel.app>), rendered in Chrome at a 375 x 812 CSS px phone frame, 2x pixel density, captured 17 Sept 2026.

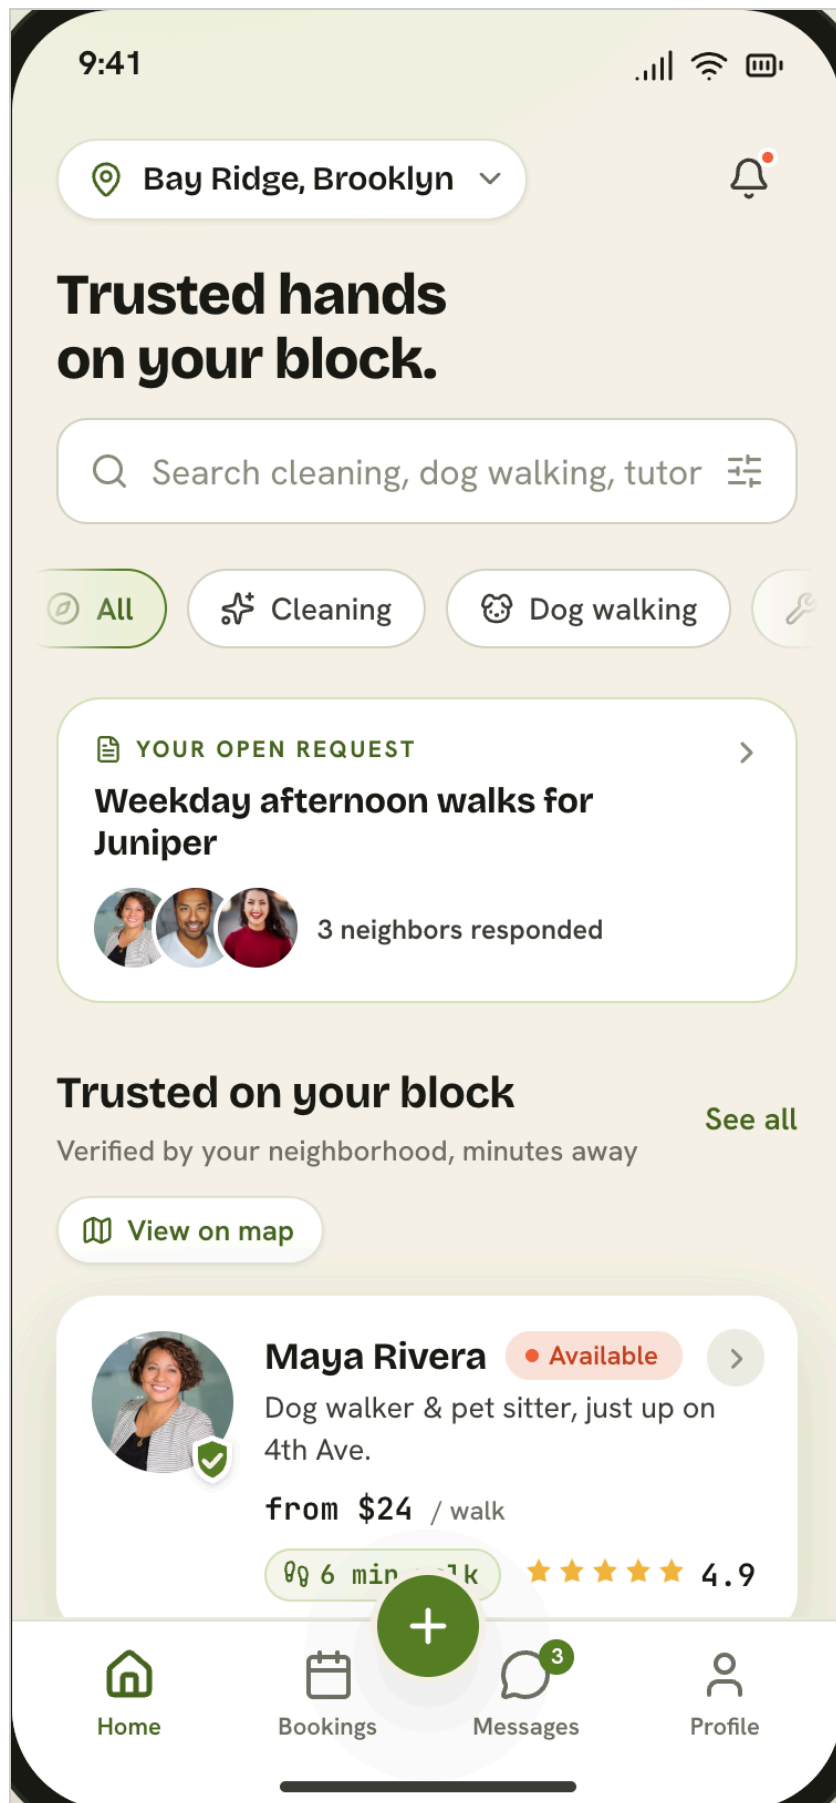

Brief: "The home screen is the polished reference. Everything past it carries planted UX issues on purpose."

Code for every screen is in source 05; CSS in source 06. Long screens are split into parts from top to bottom.

1. 01-home: Home tab (entry point), scrolled top to bottom
2. 02-create-sheet: Create sheet opened from the tab-bar + button
3. 03-new-request: "Post a request" form, empty
4. 04-new-request-validation-errors: "Post a request" after tapping "Post to your block" with no fields filled
5. 05-request-detail: "Your request" detail, open, 3 replies
6. 06-request-close-sheet: "Close this request?" confirmation sheet
7. 07-request-closed: "Your request" after closing (toast visible)
8. 08-neighbor-detail: Neighbor detail (tap on a neighbor card on Home)
9. 09-booking-review: "Confirm booking" (Book Maya from the request)
10. 10-bookings-tab: Bookings tab
11. 11-messages-tab: Messages tab, thread list
12. 12-profile-tab: Profile tab
13. 13-message-thread: Message thread with a neighbor
14. 14-admin-queue: Admin moderation queue, mobile (Profile → Moderation queue)
15. 15-admin-desk-desktop: Admin moderation queue, desktop view (1280 wide)
